“King of the Ring” Rules

1. All athletes will be randomly assigned a number. This can either be done by the tournament organizer or by any other random method not visible to the competitor.
2. Athletes will line up on one side of the ring to the left or right.
3. There are TWO timings required for King of the Ring.

A) A Running Time Clock which will be 15, 20 or 25 minutes depending on the number of competitors. The running time should be consistent with the number of competitors:

- a) 15 competitors = 15 minutes
- b) 20 competitors = 20 minutes
- c) 25 competitors = 25 minutes

The organizer should round up or down based on the number of competitors: I.E. 17 competitors rounds down to 15 minutes OR 18 competitors round up to 20 minutes. Alternatively, the tournament organizer can set the Running Time Clock to the exact number of competitors.

B) A 20 second Time Clock per match which will be run by an excellent time keeper due to the substantial amount of resetting the clock is needed.

4. The Scoreboard will be next to the ring where the athletes are lined up. This is to allow for clarification on score.
5. There will need to be a supervisor at the beginning of the line, and the end of the line especially for children’s divisions.
6. All competitors must stay out of the ring while in line. The line supervisors should supervise this.
7. All competitors are expected to enter and exit the ring hastily so that it does not delay the next bout.
8. The Center referee should only stop the running time clock for injury, but may choose to do for other reasons. I.E. Equipment issue, clarification on score issue.
9. Coaches are not allowed in the normal coaching seats. They must sit back in an assigned areas (preferably a bench). They may offer instruction, but must remain seated during this time. They should also not change their seats.
10. Every bout will be: 20 seconds.

11. Stoppage during twenty second bouts:

- a) injury (the running time clock should be stopped as well)
- b) penalty
- c) score

12. If a competitor scores, they will be given Yuko, Wazari or Ippon. This should be recorded on a large white board for everyone to see.
13. If the line is to the left of the head referee, the current winner or new winner should move to the right of the head referee to facilitate the entrance of the next competitor.
14. There is no video review in King of the Ring
15. There are no protests in King of the Ring
16. If Both athletes are awarded the same score: Aka: 1 and Ao: 1, they are awarded their points on the score board and they will both get a fresh :20 clock for another bout.
17. If Both athletes are awarded different scores: Aka: 3 and Ao: 1, they are both awarded their respective points on the score board. However, the competitor with the lower score must exit to the back of the line. In this instance Aka remains, and Ao leaves.
18. When there is less than :20 remaining on the Running Time Clock, a “last match” will be declared.
19. In the event of any one tie, a sudden death match will be held.
20. In the event of a three way tie, one competitor will be randomly selected to sit out the first sudden death match and will fight the winner of the first bout.
21. All four corner judges should be used for King of the Ring. If four are not available, then the 3 judge system can be implemented and those rules should be applied.
22. It is advisable to put both the competitors name and number on the score board.
23. It is advisable to run combined age divisions for King of the Ring in accordance with the combined age divisions for kata and kumite.

“King of the Ring” was created in 2009 by Eric Rossini as way to offer a second individual kumite event for competitors. It was also designed to help competitors learn to score quickly. It is a high paced, well received and crowd-pleasing event. The King of the Ring has been part of Eric Rossini’s tournaments since 2009 which are currently called “The Boston Open”.
